

Darin Drown is in his 14th year teaching choir at Grandview High school in Aurora, CO in the Cherry Creek School District, and 26th year of teaching. His choirs have consistently received the highest ratings at festivals around the United States and have been featured performers at the Colorado Music Educator's convention several times. He has been named Teacher of the Year in two different schools over his career, as well as a District Teacher of the Year.

In addition, Darin directed the 120-man BHS Sound of the Rockies chorus to 7 medalist performances in international competition, reaching as high as 3rd place.

Darin has traveled all over the world coaching men's and women's quartets and choruses. He also sings in Storm Front, the 2010 International Champion barbershop quartet.
