

Sara Carney serves as the Marketing and Communications Chair for the Idaho Falls A Cappella Chorus, where she thrives on boosting the chorus's visibility and engagement through social media.

With a degree in computer drafting and graphic design, Sara brings a creative edge to her role. In addition to her work with the chorus, she is an award-winning tailor based in Eastern Idaho.

Her passion for music began at the age of 4, singing in church, and has only grown stronger over the years. In May, she will compete as the tenor with In A-Chord, a novice quartet.
